A free workshop for children and adults!

Jeff Simeon will teach the basics of bird identification, and show parents and children how to connect to nature using smart phone technology and the Birdeez free app for iPhone.

Sponsored by NatureTrack

This non-profit organization provides outdoor field trips for all Central Coast school-aged children at no cost to the schools or students.

NatureTrack seeks to instill students with the leadership skills, attitudes, and habits for lifelong learning, and inspire them to be respectful stewards of our natural world. www.naturetrack.org
